

TENTATIVE AGENDA SUMMARY:

DAY 1: ENFORCEMENT OF FIRST NATION LAWS – FEDERAL AND PROVINCIAL ACTION PLANS

Focusing on federal and provincial action plans for enforcing First Nation laws.

- Opening remarks from the Lands Advisory Board, First Nations Land Management Resource Centre and federal and provincial Ministers.
- Federal and provincial Minister panel discussion on departmental action plans to support the enforcement and prosecution of First Nation laws.
- Updates on the progress of key federal and provincial Indigenous enforcement initiatives, including the co-development of federal First Nation Police Services legislation, changes to the BC Offences Act to include Treaty First Nations, and deliberations of the Ontario Tri-partite Collaborative Technical Table on the Enforcement and Prosecution of First Nation Laws.
- Expert Indigenous keynote address on how the reconciliation of First Nation laws with other legal systems in Canada will help rebuild First Nation self-government across the country.

DAY 2: FIRST NATION-LED PROGRESS ON ENFORCEMENT AND TRADESHOW

Focusing on First Nation-led enforcement initiatives and the launch of the tradeshow featuring businesses and organizations able to assist First Nations with their enforcement needs.

- First Nation presentations about partnerships, capacity-building strategies, and other initiatives to improve or advance enforcement and prosecution mechanisms on reserve.
- Update on First Nations Land Management Resource Centre strategies, supports and initiatives to resolve the enforcement issue.
- Keynote address from an Indigenous leader in enforcement on the importance of First Nation laws and First Nation-led justice systems
- Evening networking event and tradeshow.

DAY 3: INDIGENOUS POLICING SOLUTIONS AND TRADESHOW

Focusing on Indigenous policing services, solutions, and action plans, with further opportunities to explore the tradeshow.

- First Nation presentations on self-administered police services on reserve.
- Panel discussion by representatives from various policing agencies across Canada on policing solutions and action plans.
- International keynote address highlighting success stories, challenges, and initiatives in Indigenous Law Enforcement.
- Highlights of First Nation enforcement support tools and services from conference sponsors.
- Keynote address by an Indigenous expert in government relations on the actions needed to advance First Nation law enforcement solutions.

HOSTED BY

